

ANNOUNCEMENT

Call for Applications to the Program of MSc in BIODIVERSITY AND CONSERVATION

The School of Science, College of Science and Technology invites qualified applicants to apply for the program of Master in Biodiversity Conservation and Natural Resource Management, Weekend Program which will start in April 2018, and offered in the weekend from Friday evening to Sunday noon. It is a 2-year program: During Year 1 we offer course work; during year 2 students conduct Masters Research.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Application forms are available from the Office of the Director of Research, Innovation and Postgraduate Studies (room A29, Administration Building), 2). The deadline for application is 31stDecember 2017. Successful applicants will be notified by issuing them acceptance letters not later than 31st January 2018. Registration and Teaching will start in April 2018.

All required documents to be submitted are listed on the first page of the application form and are listed below, and shall be submitted to:

Directorate of Research, Innovation and Postgraduate Studies
College of Science and Technology,
P.O. Box 3900, Kigali, Rwanda.
Email: ebizuru@gmail.com

The required documents for application are:

- Filled Application form for admission in Masters Programs downloadable at Office of the Registrar site :<http://www.registrar.ur.ac.rw/> or <http://research.ur.ac.rw/?q=node/83>
- Application letter
- Medical Certificate
- Recent Birth Certificate
- Recent Medical Certificate
- An updated Curriculum vitae (CV)
- Copy of National identity card

SCHOOL OF SCIENCES

- Notarized Academic transcript of undergraduate studies.
- Notarized undergraduate degree Certificate or Equivalence from HEC
- Proof of payment of 10,000 RwF for Rwandan and 12,000 RwF for international students for admission fee
- Motivation letter
- Two Recommendation letters from your lecturers in BSc or supervisor at your working institution.

Done at Kigali 5th October 2017

Prof. Elias BIZURU
Director of Research and Postgraduate studies
College of Science and Technology